

Safety Meeting and OSHA Regulations Workshop

When:	August 26, 2015 from 10:30 am to 3 pm
Where:	McMahon's EZ Acres shop, 5930 West Scott, Rd, Homer, NY
Cost:	FREE but you must RSVP by August 19th to be included for lunch!
Who Should Come:	Dairy producers who want to make safety improvements on their farm Anyone wanting information on OSHA standards in the dairy industry Dairy farmers wanting to use the workshop as a training session

Schedule

- 10:30 – Arrival at McMahon's
- 10:45 – Introductions and informal meeting:
  - Dairy Dozen and general safety
  - How to manage a surprise inspection
  - Update on surprise inspections
  - How to manage after the inspection, fines and fine reductions
- 11:30 – Real-life example Danielle Volles
- 11:45 – Q&A with all speakers
- 12:00 – lunch
- 1:00 – Walkthrough of facilities
- 3:00 – Adjourn

Even if your farm is not included in those than can be inspected, lots of good information will be available. Producers that attend this workshop can claim the safety session as training for their own records.

Speakers

- Jim Carraba - NY Center for Agricultural Medicine and Health (NYCAMH)
- Karl Cyzmmek - Pro-Dairy
- Danielle Volles - Local Dairy Farmer who went through an unplanned OSHA inspection

RSVP Information

Please respond by August 19th to:

Jennifer Atkinson at 607.753.5078 or jma358@cornell.edu

For questions contact:

Betsy Hicks at 607.753.5213 or bjh246@cornell.edu

Cornell University
Cornell Cooperative Extension
South Central New York Dairy & Field Crops

