

Winter Dairy Management 2016

Transition Cows: How to get Fresh Cows off to a Great Start

Wednesday, March 2nd

10:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

CCE Genesee County Office
420 East Main Street, Batavia

Pre-Registration is Requested!

RVSP by: February 22nd

Hot meal & proceedings included

Cost:

$35.00 per person not enrolled in NWNy Team

$30.00 per person enrolled in NWNy Team

$25.00 ea. Additional person(s) from same company/farm

This year's Winter Dairy Management will focus around Transition Cows, including Nutrition, Animal Behavior and Environmental Considerations and Cow-side Care and Decision Making.

Agenda

(Note: this will be a live webinar)

- | | |
|----------|---|
| 10:00 am | Registration |
| 10:30am | Nutrition: Far-off, Close-up and Fresh
Dr. Tom Overton |
| 11:15am | Emerging Concepts in Feeding Fresh Cows
Dr. Sabine Mann |
| Noon-1pm | Lunch |
| 1:00pm | Animal Behavior and Environmental Considerations: Cow needs at calving vs what she gets
Lindsay Collings-Ferlito |
| 1:45pm | Cow-side Care and Decision Making
Topics: protocols, cow-side tests, monitoring
Dr. Robert A. Lynch, |
| 2:30pm | Wrap up and Questions |

CONTACT Cathy Wallace:

585.343.3040 x138 or cfw6@cornell.edu

nwnyteam.cce.cornell.edu