

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
South Central New York Dairy & Field Crops Team

PRESENTS:

Multi-Species Pasture Walk: lamb & beef

Hosted by: Erin Hull and Lucky 13

790 Markham Hollow Road, Tully 13159

Thursday, July 13

6-8 pm (rain or shine)

Located at:

790 Markham Hollow Rd.,
(W. of Tully)

Light refreshments will be served.

Cost $5 for 2 people from the same farm

To Pre-register call Jen @ 607-
391-2662 or our on-line calendar at https:// scnydfc.cce.cornell.edu/

Host Erin Hull

will share her experience

- ⇒ establishing the farm,
- ⇒ building grazing infrastructure,
- ⇒ grazing lambs and grass-based beef
- ⇒ pasture management, pasture species,
- ⇒ Supplementing pasture with difficult weather patterns (drought & drowning)
- ⇒ Lucky 13's Marketing strategies
- ⇒ Accessing cost-share programs and technical assistance from the county Soil and Water Conservation District

CO-SPONSORED WITH:

Onondaga County
Soil and Water Conservation District