The Feed Dealer Seminars are specifically targeted for nutritionists, veterinarians, crop and management consultants, extension educators, and dairy producers with specific interest in nutrition-oriented topics. They are designed to blend the latest concepts in feeding and other management aspects of dairies with field level application. They have been conducted annually as a road show with multiple sites in New York for many years with an additional Vermont location held during the past several years in collaboration with the Northeast Agribusiness and Feed Alliance.

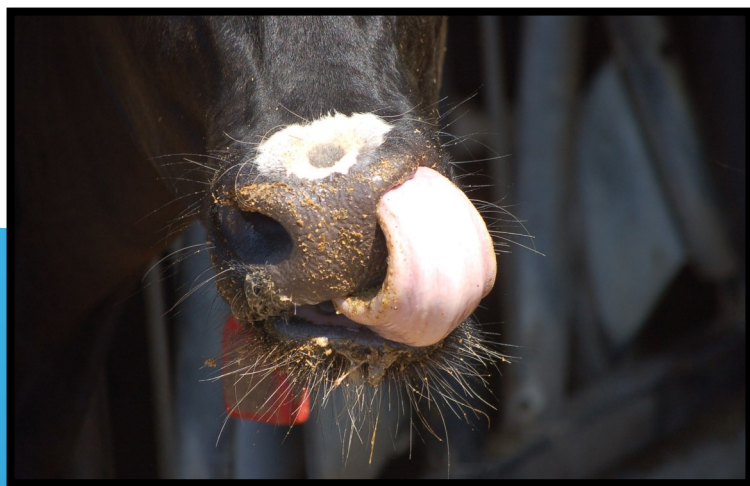

Speakers:

Tom Overton, PhD, PRO-DAIRY, Cornell University

Rob Lynch, DVM, PRO-DAIRY, Cornell University

Allison Kerwin, PhD candidate, Cornell University

- ◆ Dealing with forage quality challenges
- ◆ Research update strategies to manage hypocalcemia
- ◆ Antibiotics on the farm - VFD update & results from selective dry cow therapy trial
