

Scholarships for Veterans and Grants for Beginning Farmers!

The Cornell Small Farms Program has funding from NYS to provide scholarships for NYS Veterans to attend this program. To learn more about this opportunity, and determine if you are eligible for a scholarship, please contact Kat McCarthy at kmm485@cornell.edu or (607) 255-9911. The CSFP also has grants for beginning farmers to receive 1:1 technical assistance in Human Resources. Beginning farmers attending these trainings are eligible to apply.

Can't attend this workshop in Geneva?

Attend our other workshops on this topic at either—

NAVIGATING THROUGH THE AG LABOR MAZE
Friday January 19th at the NOFA NY Winter Conference in Saratoga Springs: Learn how to build better farmer and worker relations within existing realities and legal structures. Learn how to establish meaningful communications across cultures and then how to go beyond traditional hierarchies to resilient relational farming through relationships of respect, cooperation, and the benefits that accrue from that.

IMPROVING COMMUNICATION WITH LATINO FARM EMPLOYEES Tuesday February 20th at the Eastern NY Commercial Horticulture Program's Winter Fruit and Vegetable school in Albany: Introduction to resources developed by the Cornell Farmworker Program to assist growers in communicating with Latino farmworkers. Includes practical tools for explaining employment issues like paychecks, housing, health care and workman's comp.

Sign up for Ag Labor Management Resources from CCE

In addition to these workshops we will provide trainings, presentations, webinars, and additional information and resources to help farm employers and managers improve their skills.

Find us on Facebook
facebook.com/CCEAgLabor

Sign up for our free E-newsletter, AgLabor Management eNews at <http://eepurl.com/cZ0p5v>

This material is based upon work supported by USDA/NIFA under Award Number 2015-49200-24225.

Additional support for this program is from the Beginning Farmer and Rancher Development Program grant no. 2017-70017-26837, from the USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture.

Cornell Cooperative Extension

Good to Great

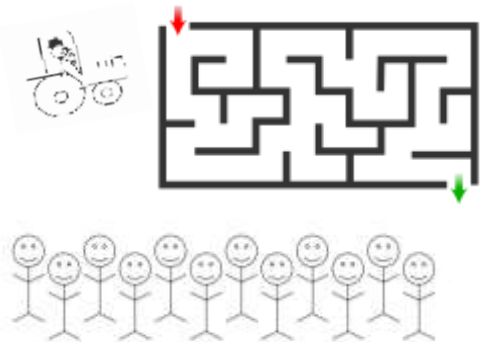

Navigating the Ag Labor Maze

December 7, 2017
11:30 am-4:00 pm
Jordan Hall
630 W North St,
Geneva, NY 14456

Do you hire, or are considering hiring, migrant or foreign-born labor?

Do you want to improve your skills in supervising employees who come from different cultures, especially workers from Mexico and Central America?

- This workshop is for you!

The program will be offered in Geneva, NY

This workshop is $20.

To register online:

https://reg.cce.cornell.edu/LaborMaze_232

Program

11:30—12:00 Registration
 12:00—4:00 Program

Tips and tools for employers of foreign born agricultural workers. Learn how to build better relations between farmers and workers and how to establish meaningful communication across cultures and language barriers. Presenters will address how to create positive workplaces and reduce communication and culturally-based misunderstandings. Also covered is access to health services, opportunities for English language learning, and tips for worker and employer emergency preparedness.

4:00-5:00 pm—optional informal discussion about navigating the H2-A program.

Registration Form—send with a check made payable to CCE Ontario County.

Name: _____

Farm Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email address: _____

Additional Attendees Names: _____

Total Registrations _____

x $20 each _____

Total enclosed _____

Mail this completed form and payment to CCE Ontario County, Attn: Labor Conference, 480 North Main Street, Canandaigua, NY 14424

Questions? Contact Mary Jo Dudley, Farmworkers@cornell.edu or (607) 254-5194

Cornell University provides equal program and employment opportunities.