Producing a Consistent Product

April 14, 2018

9 am to 12 noon

Producers are always searching for a marketing avenue for their products. The real issue is that the buyers/consumers are looking to purchase a consistent product, not just a product. By having a consistent product, producers can maintain their current customers and gain additional ones. Please come join Ashley McFarland, Area Livestock Specialist, for a half day event regarding this topic.

Speakers:

Dr. Cindi Shelley, Animal Science Professor from SUNY Cobleskill

Dr. Michael J. Baker, PAS, Ph.D, Beef Cattle Extension Specialist
