

Tompkins County Agricultural Summit:

Strategies for Farming in the Northeast with Changing Weather Patterns

Tuesday, February 26th

10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

(registration starts at 9:30 a.m.)

Dryden VFW, 2272 Dryden Road

$10 per person, includes lunch

Changing weather patterns and weather extremes are creating new challenges in an already challenging industry – come hear about new research and approaches to keeping ahead of the weather!

Topics to be covered:

- What Difference Does Two Degrees Make?
- Maintaining Healthy Soil with Increased Rainfall or Drought
- Grants and Other Funding Opportunities for Farmers
- Reducing Livestock Stress from Extreme Temperatures
- Diversifying Farm Enterprises, Species, Crop Varieties, and Breeds

PLUS: Informational displays from agricultural agencies and organizations

To Register: Contact Debbie Teeter, Cornell Cooperative Extension of Tompkins County, dlt22@cornell.edu/607-272-2292.

Sponsored by: The Tompkins County Agriculture and Farmland Protection Board in cooperation with Tompkins County Farm Bureau and Farm Credit East.

Cooperative Extension
Tompkins County

