

Cornell Cooperative Extension

Northwest NY Dairy, Livestock and Field Crops Program

2-Day Hoof Trimming Workshop

August 16 - 17, 2022

9:30am - 3:30pm ET

In-Person Event

Offered in English and Spanish

This workshop is for dairy employees or others interested in bovine hoof care. This program will cover the basics of foot care and hoof trimming practices.

Performance Objectives:

- Understand bovine foot anatomy
- Practice basic hoof trimming methods
- Perform lameness detection and scoring
- Learn proper knife sharpening
- Practice safety in handling tools and cattle

 Limited to 15 Participants

Lunch will be provided

Register: <https://nwnyteam.cce.cornell.edu/events.php>

or contact Brandie Waite at 585-343-3040 x138

*Participants are required to be 18 years or older *

Questions? Contact
Margaret Quaassdorff
maq27@cornell.edu
585-405-2567

Presenters:

Chip Hendrickson
Professional Hoof
Trimmer

AgroChem USA

Aaron Lavoy
Professional Hoof
Trimmer

Midwestern Hoof
Trimming School
Hortonville, WI

Location:

Lamb Farms
3962 Batavia-Elba
Townline Rd.,
Oakfield, NY 14125

Cost:

$175 per person enrolled in the NWNy Team

$250 per person NOT enrolled in the NWNy
team

