Hello Everyone,

We have a full line-up of livestock related programming scheduled for the month of October! Take a look at our events below, and reach out to Amy Barkey (amb544@cornell.edu or 716-640-0844) with any questions. Looking forward to seeing you at one of these upcoming events!

FAMACHA and Internal Parasite IPM Training at Mitrowski House Farm, Machias, NY

Thursday, October 6, 2022, 4:00pm – 6:30pm at Mitrowski House Farm, Machias, NY

Join Amy Barkley of the SWNYDLFC Team and Lynn Bliven of CCE Allegany for a comprehensive, hands-on FAMACHA training. We will review the common internal parasites of sheep and goats, anti-parasitic drug classes and the use of Integrated Pest Management to reduce resistance in parasite populations, and pasture management for optimal forage production and limiting of potential parasite burdens.

Fall Update on the Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza Outbreak

Wednesday, October 12, 2022, 7:00pm – 8:00pm on Zoom (online webinar)

Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI) is still circulating in the US, with the number of cases in both commercial and backyard flocks increasing as we head into fall. All poultry farmers, hobbyists, and enthusiasts are invited to join Cornell Cooperative Extension's Livestock Program Work Team and the NYS Department of Agriculture and Markets to learn more about this disease, what we know so far about the current outbreak, and how we should prepare moving into the heart of the fall migration.

Beef Quality Assurance (BQA) Training at Town Line Livestock in Perrysburg, NY

Saturday, October 15, 2022, 9am – 2pm at Perrysburg Volunteer Fire Company and Townline Livestock, Perrysburg, NY

This nationwide training and certification program arms beef producers with the tools they need to make sound management decisions for the health of their cattle, the safety of their customers, and the quality of their beef.
