12.2.2022 Updates from Cornell Cooperative Extension's SWNY Dairy, Livestock, and Field Crops Program

A partnership between Cornell University and the Cornell Cooperative Extension Associations in these five counties: Allegany, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Erie, and Steuben.

Thank you Mark Einink from Cows Come First, Darleen Krisher-Meehan from Country Crossroads Feed and Seed, and Joe Foster from Laing-Gro for sponsoring this Weekly Update.

It's County Enrollment/Subscription/Support Time!

Our program (SWNDYFLC) exists because 5 incredibly supportive Cornell Cooperative Extension Associations came together and partnered to better serve the needs of our region's agricultural community. One way you can support them is by signing up for their enrollment/subscription/support programs. Reach out to your county's Cornell Cooperative Extension Association to learn more! A Real Life Reminder for Farm Safety Around Animals - By Katelyn Walley-Stoll

When working with any type of livestock or equipment, it's key to consider safety to keep yourself, your farm family, employees, and animals safe. On average from year to year, one in every four farm accidents involve animals. Here are some farm safety reminders for working with animals on the farm.

Cornell Meat Suite Relaunch – Is Your Profile Up to Date?

Cornell's MeatSuite.com has been upgraded with new features that make the program easier to use for both farmers and the public. If you already use the program, please take this opportunity to update your profile! [If you're new to the program, you can create a free profile on \[www.meatsuite.com\]\(http://www.meatsuite.com\) to share a little about your farm and to list the bulk order meats you have for sale.](#)

New York Soil Health Summit

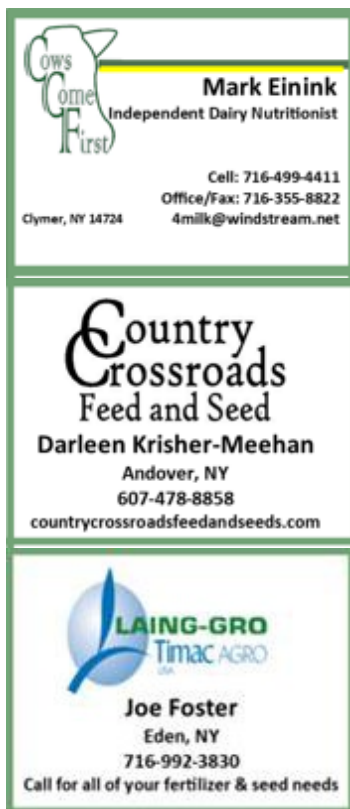

On Tuesday, December 13, 2022, from 9 am-noon, we are hosting the second New York Soil Health Summit virtually. We invite all farmers, researchers, agriculture service providers, government agencies, non-profits, and policymakers interested in advancing soil health efforts across the state. For the agenda and event registration, click here.

Program Sponsorship for Dairy "Technology Tuesdays" Webinar Series

Cornell Cooperative Extension and Cornell PRO-DAIRY are excited to offer a sponsorship opportunity for our upcoming Dairy "Technology Tuesdays" webinar series. This seven-part webinar series provides cutting-edge information about dairy technology from industry experts. Topics include health monitoring and reproduction, calf management, milking technologies, and more. The series will run from Jan 10 to Feb 21, 2023, from 12:30 pm-1:30 pm EST. Sponsors will be recognized in all promotional materials. They will have a slide played at the start of each live presentation and a slide or mention in the recorded versions released later. Sponsorship is offered at one level ($250) for the whole program. Sponsorships can be paid online here or by reaching out to Tatum Langworthy, CCE NCRAT, 203 N. Hamilton St, Watertown, NY 13601, Tlm92@cornell.edu, to pay.

Thank you Cows Come First, Country Crossroads Feed and Seed, and Laing-Gro for sponsoring this Weekly Update.
