A Review of the Endangered Species Act: An Example

On March 20th, 2024, the Endangered Species Act Committee of the Weed Science Society of America (WSSA)'s hosted an informative webinar on how pesticide labels may change to protect endangered species. This article provides a quick summary of action items that were presented. You can also watch the recording on NYSIPM's YouTube channel.

It's That Time of Year - Managing to Prevent Grass Tetany, by Dr. Mike Baker

With this year’s early pasture green-up, we’re turning our minds to getting livestock out on pasture. A slow transition from stored forages to pasture will help mitigate the potential to develop deadly metabolic syndromes, like grass tetany.

Last Chance (Friday) - Eden Valley Creamery Discussion

Join us at noon on Friday, May 3rd to learn more about Value Added Dairy Processing, co-packing opportunities, and the successes of Eden Valley Creamery in South Dayton. Lunch included and free to attend - but please call or text Katelyn Walley to RSVP (716-640-0522).
