11.07.2024 Updates from Cornell Cooperative Extension's SWNY Dairy, Livestock, and Field Crops Program

A partnership between Cornell University and the Cornell Cooperative Extension Associations in these five counties: Allegany, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Erie, and Steuben.

Thank you Ben Scott from Advanced Dairy Services and Don Wild from Wild Acres Family Farm for sponsoring this Weekly Update.

Steuben County Crop Symposium

It's your last chance to register for the Steuben County Crop Symposium taking place November 14 from 1 PM – 4 PM. Topics include land rent pricing, restoring hayfield productivity, weed management in pastures, integrated pest management, and tar spot. 1.5 credits available in 1a, 10 and 21. Pre-registration is required. Call Kelly Bourne at 585-268-7644 ext. 10 or click here to register.

Selling Turkeys This Year? Reminders for Labeling and Handling

As you're planning your turkey harvest and sales, keep safe handling, proper labeling, and regulations for selling in mind to enjoy a stress-free and food safety-forward holiday season.

Dairy Innovation Program

Bring your idea for a value-added, cow milk-based dairy product to life through the FREE Dairy Runway Program! Open to any dairy entrepreneur or food innovator in New York or New England, Dairy Runway features a Cornell University-hosted entrepreneurship course focused on initial product concept and customer discovery, plus prototype training and business coaching. Program participants are led through a process to determine if their product ideas are desirable, viable, and feasible. Graduates are equipped with the skills needed to develop a workable business plan for a scalable product and are positioned to apply to various incubator and accelerator programs.
