

A Growing Opportunity for New York Angus Producers!

Local Harvest is a provider of natural Choice and Prime Angus beef from cattle that have been raised and marketed in the Mid-Atlantic states. Through our partnerships with Wegman's Supermarkets and other retailers who want to provide high quality natural beef sourced from farms in New York, demand for your cattle is rapidly increasing, and we are looking for producers who will be a part of this program by providing natural Angus calves or finished cattle.

Local Harvest Cattle will meet these specifications:

- 50% Red Angus or Black Angus Genetics
- Never been administered implants or growth hormones
- Never received antibiotics
- Never been administered a beta-agonist or ionophore
- No Dairy influence, bulls or stags
- No mammalian, fish or avian by-products, with the exception of milk and milk derived products
- Management records kept for a minimum of 3 years
- Signed Local Harvest affidavit

Local Harvest offers a negotiated premium to the 5 Region Market and trucking allowance. Selects receive Base Price. Discounts apply for No Rolls and Mature carcasses, as well as excessive YG4, all YG5 and very heavy or light carcasses.*

When it's time to market your natural Angus cattle, please give Local Harvest cattle buyer Nelson Curry a call at (859)983-1772, or email LOCAL@meyerfoods.com for more information.
